KUDOS

Regent Schroeder presented a KUDOS award to Valerie Gunderson, Business Manager, UnEMed at the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

Regent Summerfield presented a KUDOS award to Jeanne Schultz, Cataloging

Regent Clare presented the following Resolution

WHEREAS, Michael Crabb , who, as Student Regent and Student Body President at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, has worked tirelessly to improve the campus for the students of UNO, not only with his ardent representation to the Board of Regents, but with his passion to provide a greater experience for the students; and

WHEREAS, Regent Crabb has taken an active approach to reorganizing the Student Government of UNO by heading up a massive By-law revision and a restructuring of SG-UNO's strategic plan, which in turn have greatly improved the entire organization; and

WHEREAS, under Regent Crabb's leadership, UNO has seen an increase in sustainability awareness and has in turn launched the MavRide program that provides free bus rides to campus for students, in order to help build a greener campus, efforts that should have a long lasting effect on UNO well past his term; and

WHEREAS, Regent Crabb has successfully worked with administration to help launch the progressive and creative UNOrthodox speaker series, along with the extension of library hours, in an effort to accomplish one of the campus' strategic goals of becoming a more academically excellent institution, both of which directly affect the student body; and

WHEREAS, Regent Crabb has gone well above and beyond his duties as a Student Body President and Student Regent and has become an admirable and true leader, who has pushed himself and his peers to help UNO realize its full potential;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Michael Crabb, the outgoing Student Body President and UNO Student Regent, be commended by the University of Nebraska Board of Regents for his outstanding resolve and his unwavering allegiance to the students within the University of Nebraska.

Regent Hassebrook presented the following Resolution

WHEREAS, Justin Solomon has served with distinction as a member of the University of Nebraska Board of Regents and President of the Association of Students of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since April 2010; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon always represented students to the University Administration in a professional and relentless manner; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon formed and implemented an East Campus Task Force to evaluate and improve academic and student services on UNL's East Campus; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon headed the "Yes 2 Better Rec Centers" campaign to improve the recreation facilities on both city and east campuses, an effort which passed with a 72% student approval; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon created the Student Fee Strategic Blueprint to assist future ASUN administrations with the fee process and to encourage financial planning by the Committee for Fee Allocation; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon developed the Student Organization Representative Council to gain insight from over 150 student leader participants in a forum setting; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon established career development tools in partnership with the College of Agricultural Sciences & Natural Resources by providing two job training classes online, available to all students; and

Whereas, Regent Solomon planned the inaugural Big Ten on the Hill Student Advocacy Conference in Washington, DC; and

WHEREAS, Regent Solomon developed ASUN's Committee on Sustainability and planned the sustainability event Focus Nebraska,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents expresses sincere appreciation for Regent Justin Solomon's dedicated service and effective leadership as a member of the board, and wishes him well in all his future endeavors.

Regent Ferlic presented the following resolution

WHEREAS, Nathan Summerfield has served with distinction as University of Nebraska Student Regent and as President of the Associated Students of the University of Nebraska at Kearney since March 2010; and

WHEREAS, Regent Summerfield has demonstrated an uncommon understanding of the needs of the students as they relate to the mission of the University; and

WHEREAS

The resolutions were adopted by acclamation.

Dr. Burns addressed the Board expressing his thanks for the resolution and the many wonderful years he had spent at the University.

A. ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

VIII-A-1 President's Personnel Recommendations

B. BUSINESS AFFAIRS

VIII-B-1 Approve a change in Board of Regents Purchasing Policy 6.2.1 to permit the use of competitive reverse auctions for purchases of goods and services

RP-6.2 Property
RP-6.2.1 Purchasing Policy

6. Competitive Bidding

a. Except as otherwise provided in this purchasing policy, any purchase committing the University to an expenditure of $150,000 or more shall be made to the lowest responsible bidder, taking into consideration the best interests of the University, the quality or performance of any articles or service to be purchased, their conformity with specifications, the purpose for which required, and the time of delivery or performance. The University may utilize a competitive reverse auction, to include a web-based version, to meet the competitive bidding requirements stated in this policy. In determining the lowest responsible bidder, in addition to price, bids may be rejected and awards made upon consideration of the following factors:

- 1) The ability, capacity, and skill of the bidder to comply with the University's policies, 11) Such other information as may be secured having a bearing on the decision to award the contract.

b. The University shall always have the right to reject any or all bids received. Further, the University may waive any informality or irregularity in any bid which does not materially affect the integrity or effectiveness of the competitive bidding process. In any case where competitive bids are required and all bids are rejected, but the proposed purchase is not abandoned, new bids shall be called for as in the first instance. The University reserves the right in all circumstances to analyze bids in detail and to award contracts which in the exercise of reasonable discretion the University believes to be in its best interest.

c. The University may reject the bid of any bidder who has (a) failed to perform a previous contract with the University, (b) failed to provide any required bid security, or (c) submitted a bid which is in any way incomplete, irregular, or not responsive to specifications.

d. A minimum of fifteen (15) days shall elapse between the time formal bids are advertised or called for and the time of their opening; provided, however, the Principal Business Officer may shorten this time period in cases of emergency. Conducting competitive ~~online~~ reverse auctions, including web-based auctions, including web-based auctions, satisfies this requirement and recognizes less than fifteen (15) days elapsed time between advertisement and the time of opening.

e. Competitive bidding shall not be required for the following types of purchases:

1) Purchase of unique or non-competitive articles or services. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, examples of unique or non-competitive articles and services are public utility services, regulated central office telephone services, books, pamphlets and periodicals, and specially designed business, research or scientific equipment and related software. (See also Section 5.b requiring written justification for sole source purchases and approval of the same by the principal business officer);

2) Contracts for professional services; provided, however, that any contract for architectural, engineering, land surveying or landscape architectural services shall be made in accordance with applicable law and Board of Regents policies requiring competitive negotiations for such services;

3) Purchases necessary in emergency situations;

4) Contracts for maintenance or servicing of equipment with the manufacturer of the equipment or the manufacturer's authorized service agent, where in the judgment of the principal business officer such maintenance or service can be most effectively performed by the manufacturer or its authorized service agent;

5) Purchases from (i) any purchasing cooperative or consortium of which the University or a major administrative unit thereof is a member, (ii) the U.S. Government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iii) the State of Nebraska or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iv) a political subdivision of the State of Nebraska, (v) any governmental or public entity created by an interlocal cooperation agreement pursuant to the Nebraska Interlocal Cooperation Act, (vi) any private or public postsecondary educational institution, or (vii) any vendor pursuant a U.S. Government General Services Administration (GSA) pricing agreement; provided, however, under no circumstances shall the University be contractually obligated or liable for any purchase by another educational institution or governmental entity, or by any other member of a purchasing cooperative or consortium;

6) Contracts on capital construction projects (a) for the services of a construction manager who may or may not at the discretion of the University also be engaged on the project as the general contractor or (b) for the services of a design/build contractor who will be engaged on the project to furnish design services by a qualified architect or engineer and to provide general contractor services; provided, the contracts shall be awarded in accordance with Board of Regents Policy RP-6.3.7.
