Amendments to RP-5.9 of the Policies of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, Student Fees:

RP-5.9 Student Fees

Campuses must establish and adhere to a campus review and approval process for all proposed student fees. Administrative charges may not be charged against student fees by a campus.

RP-5.9.1 University Program and Facilities Fees

1. Definitions
 - a. Name. The official name for student fees is “University Program and Facilities Fees” (UPFF).
 - b. Fund A. That portion of UPFF designated for student activities which are managed by student groups shall be distributed according to an annual budget developed by the appropriate student government organization on each campus. This portion of the UPFF shall be called Fund A.
 - c. Fund B. That portion of the UPFF designated to pay debt services, staff salaries, maintenance of facilities and related expenses, and those additional items designated by the Chancellor will be budgeted separately with emphasis upon continuing support. This portion of the UPFF shall be designated as Fund B.
2. Use of Fund A Monies
 - a. Allocation of Fund A monies is restricted to the following three organizations on each campus: (1) student government, (2) student programming, and (3) student newspaper. Fund A monies may not be used for academic programs or functions directly related to academic programs.
 - b. Offices receiving Fund A support must benefit a broad based student population. Student governments may not distribute Fund A monies to individuals, except in the form of wages for services performed, nor to groups or organizations that are not established by and under the direct control of student government.
 - c. Student programming organizations may make grants of Fund A monies to other student groups and organizations to support the programming needs of such groups and organizations. Such grants may only be made on a one fiscal year basis; may be made only with the approval of the cognizant Chancellor; may not be expended for wages, equipment, office supplies, or travel; and may not be granted to a single organization more than once in a two-year period.
3. Approval of Fund A Budgets
 - a. The Board of Regents hereby delegates authority to establish and allocate Fund A monies to the elected student governments subject only to approval by the appropriate Chancellor.
 - b. An allocations body comprised of students, faculty, and staff shall be established on each campus to recommend disbursements of Fund A.

- c. Hearing dates for the initial meetings of the student government bodies established to allocate fees shall be published in the student newspaper (or appropriate campus news media) ten (10) days prior to such hearings with costs being defrayed by the UPFF allocation to student publications, and a tentative allocation shall be published in the student newspaper (or appropriate campus news media). This published information shall include the salaries, the operating budgets, and the capital expenditures of all groups receiving fee funding. The cost will be dealt with as above, and coinciding with the publication of the tentative allocation, there shall be a publication of the final hearing dates of the student government body responsible for fee allocations.
- d. After a final hearing, the fees allocation body shall draw up the final allocation proposal to be submitted to the student government of each campus for approval; after such approval by the student government, the final allocation shall be published in the student newspaper (or appropriate campus news media), and after approval by the above bodies, the proposal shall be submitted to the responsible campus Vice Chancellor and Chancellor for approval.
- e. Redistribution of Fund A monies among ~~30~~ 1.53 0006 Tw(4an-st3ibledesi.2()06 ouped 8an-st3ibdwith (th6)]T specific expenditure areas for which said student government is seeking authorization.

5. Refunds of Fund A UPPF

For a period of at least one month during each academic term, each student who has paid a Fund A student fee for that term shall be eligible to apply for, and each eligible applicant therefore shall receive a full or partial refund of his or her Fund A student fee for that academic term. No student who applies for and receives a refund of his or her Fund A student fee shall, by virtue of such refund, be denied the right to stand for election to any student government office, or be denied the right to vote in any student government elections, or be denied any other political right within or ancillary to student government on his or her campus.

6. Use of Fund B Monies

Upon recommendation of the campus Chancellor and the President, and with the approval of the Board, Fund B monies may be allocated for support of (i) University contracts requiring payment in whole or in part from dedicated student fees, (ii) student unions and centers, (iii) intercollegiate athletic programs, (iv) student health services, (v) student recreational programs, (vi) international student services, (vii) student transit services, and (viii) facilities related to any of the foregoing. Fund B monies shall not be allocated for the benefit of an individual student (including athletic scholarships) except for wages paid to a student who is an hourly paid employee, employed by and at one of the facilities above; for support of the University's physical plant, except for facilities used primarily for those student services or activities permitted above or facilities subject to bonded indebtedness requiring dedicated student fees; or for support of any academic program, or any function or facility directly related to an academic program. In the event a facility is used in part for those student services or activities permitted above, and in part for other purposes (such as academic programs, or faculty, staff, or community services and activities), Fund B monies may be used to support the facility only up to the proportion that the permitted student services or activities in the facility bear to the total use of the facility.

7. Collection of User Fees and Contributions by Student Organizations

Student groups and organizations may, with the approval of the cognizant Chancellor, establish, charge, and collect appropriate user fees for services and activities sponsored by such groups and organizations in University facilities or with University equipment or with the official sanction or assistance of University personnel. Any such fees must be collected, deposited, and disbursed in accordance with established University policies, and may only be used in support of the services and activities of the organization receiving the fee.

Any student organization, office, or group which has received official University recognition may, with the approval of the cognizant Chancellor, solicit and collect voluntary contributions. Such contributions must be solicited, collected, deposited, and disbursed in accordance with established University policies, and may only be used in support of the student organization, office, or group by which the contributions were solicited.

RP-5.9.2 Course and Laboratory Fees; Miscellaneous Fees

The following fundamental concepts shall be observed with regard to the expenditure of non-UPPF student fee revenues:

1. A description of the fees charged and their purpose must be provided to students on a website or in another manner determined by the campus.
2. Student fee expenditures must align with the purposes and descriptions for which they were collected.
3. Student fees shall be expended for purposes that directly benefits the students charged.
4. Fees shall not be distributed for the benefit of an individual student (ex: scholarship or fellowship) nor be awarded on a competitive basis.

Costs related to the development, instruction and assessment of offering a course are expected to be borne by the department and college, including materials related to the mechanics of teaching the course, such as course outlines, syllabi, exams, and similar handouts. The department is also expected to bear the costs of staffing courses, including personnel employed to aid in the course such as teaching assistants and guest speakers.

A Course fee is defined as a charge applied to students enrolled in a specific course for expenses directly related to the student's participation. A Laboratory (lab) fee is defined as a charge made to students to underwrite, in whole or in part, the cost of services, rentals, and consumable supplies utilized in a laboratory environment. Costs that may be assessed through these fees include, but are not limited to, any consumable materials, services provided as a part of the class, travel costs for the student to attend a required field trip, computer related software for student use specific to the course, individual exams or assessments produced by a third party that are purchased at a group rate, materials such as manuals, chemicals, glassware, protective or other clothing, paints, brushes and canvasses that will be consumed by the student in the course of instructional activities. A course or lab fee may also include the costs of purchase, maintenance, repair and replacement of equipment used in the delivery of a course or execution of a lab. A course or lab fee shall not be expended for general departmental or administrative costs.

~~Course fees are established to cover the costs related to a particular course, for example, the costs associated with the bulk purchase of self-assessments or copyright fees. A laboratory fee is defined as a~~

RP-5.9.43 Reporting of Course, Laboratory, Online Course and Miscellaneous Fees

The Chancellors on each of the campuses shall report to the President no later than March 1 of each year a listing of all planned changes in student fees of any nature for the next academic year. All fees must be reviewed by the campus at least once every four years. Any planned increase in fees must be approved by the President and subsequently included as a report to the Board of Regents in a meeting agenda, prior to the proposed implementation of the increased fees. A list of all laboratory fees will be included in the schedule of classes which is provided to students prior to the time that they register for classes.

Amendments to RP-6.2.1 of the Policies of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska,
Purchasing Policy

RP-6.2.1 Purchasing Policy

1. Policy References

- a. The Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, Section 6.1, relating to Obligations.
- b. The Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, Section 6.4, relating to Contracts.
- c. Neb. Rev. Stat., § 73-101 et seq. relating to Public Lettings.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide uniform purchasing guidelines for the University of Nebraska.

3. Applicability

This policy shall apply to the purchase of personal property and services, and to the purchase of labor, materials, and equipment for the construction, maintenance, repair, remodeling, renovation, renewal or demolition of any University building or other improvement to real property. The purchase of services of architects, engineers, landscape architects, and land surveyors and the acquisition of real property are excluded from this policy.

4. Definitions

- a. Article. Article shall mean any item of personal property, and shall include all materials, supplies, furniture, equipment, printing, stationery, software, automotive and road equipment and all other chattels, goods, wares and merchandise whatsoever.
- b. Bylaws. Bylaws shall mean the Bylaws of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska.
- c. Contractor. Contractor shall mean any pers

- d. Emergency. Emergency shall mean any situation where it is necessary that the University enter into a contract of purchase to (a) avoid the loss of life, health, safety, or property,
(b) respond to time limits established by a person or agency external to the University, or
(c) obtain cost savings for the University where the time constraints of

9. Purchases Using Cooperative or Consortium

- a. Purchases do not require competitive bidding if sourced from (i) any purchasing cooperative or consortium of which the University or a major administrative unit thereof is a member, (ii) the U.S. Government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iii) the State of Nebraska or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iv) a political subdivision of the State of Nebraska, (v) any governmental or public entity created by an interlocal cooperation agreement pursuant to the Nebraska Interlocal Cooperation Act, (vi) any private or public postsecondary educational institution, or (vii) any vendor pursuant a U.S. Government General Services Administration (GSA) pricing agreement; provided, however, under no circumstances shall the University be contractually obligated or liable for any purchase by another educational institution or governmental entity, or by any other member of a purchasing cooperative or consortium.

6.10. Competitive Bidding

- a. Procurement by competitive proposals (RFP) is normally conducted with more than one source submitting an offer. The following requirements apply

- 1) RFPs must be publicized and identify all evaluation factors and their relative importance.
- 2) Proposals must be solicited from an adequate number of qualified sources.
- 3) Contracts must be awarded to the responsible firm whose proposal is most advantageous to the program, with price and other factors considered.

- b. Except as otherwise provided in this purchasing policy, any purchase committing the University to an expenditure of $150,000 or more shall be made to the lowest responsible bidder, taking into consideration the best interests of the University, the quality or performance of any articles or service to be purchased, their conformity with specifications, the purpose for which required, and the time of delivery or performance. The University may utilize a competitive reverse auction, to include a web-based version, to meet the competitive bidding requirements stated in this policy. In determining the lowest responsible bidder, in addition to price, bids may be rejected and awards made upon consideration of the following factors:

- 1) The ability, capacity, and skill of the bidder to comply with the University's specifications and perform the contract required;
- 2) The character, integrity, reputation, judgment, experience, and efficiency of the bidder;
- 3) Whether the bidder can perform the contract within the time specified;

- 4) The quality of the bidder's performance of previous contracts (see also Section 10.d 6-e);
- 5) The previous and existing compliance by the bidder with laws relating to the contract;
- 6) The life-cycle cost of an article in relation to its purchase price and specific use by the University (see also Section 10.g 6-f);
- 7) The performance of an article, taking into consideration any commonly accepted tests and standards of produc

- 1) Purchase of unique or non-competitive articles or services. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, examples of unique or non-competitive articles and services are public utility services, regulated central office telephone services, books, pamphlets and periodicals, and specially designed business, research or scientific equipment and related software. (See also Section 5. ~~cb~~ requiring written justification for sole source purchases and approval of the same by the principal business officer);
- 2) Contracts for professional services; provided, however, that any contract for architectural, engineering, land surveying or landscape architectural services shall be made in accordance with applicable law and Board of Regents Policies requiring competitive negotiations for such services;
- 3) Purchases necessary in emergency situations;
- 4) Contracts for maintenance or servicing of equipment with the manufacturer of the equipment or the manufacturer's authorized service agent, where in the judgment of the principal business officer such maintenance or service can be most effectively performed by the manufacturer or its authorized service agent;
- 5) ~~Purchases from (i) any purchasing cooperative or consortium of which the University or a major administrative unit thereof is a member, (ii) the U.S. Government or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iii) the State of Nebraska or any agency or instrumentality thereof, (iv) a political subdivision of the State of Nebraska, (v) any governmental or public entity created by an interlocal cooperation agreement pursuant to~~

~~7) Purchases, buildings and other improvements costing less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).~~

~~f.g.~~ When required by the University, each bidder will furnish life-cycle costs between alternatives for all classes of e non- resident bidder, necessary for receiving the benefit of that state's preference law on the date when a bid for a public contract is first advertised or announced. This section shall not apply to any contract for any project upon which federal funds would be

14.18. Reports

Each principal business officer or the Vice President for Business and Finance shall immediately notify the General Counsel's office in any instance where a decision made concerning the awarding of a contract ~~of purchase~~ is disputed by a party outside the University.
